

Friends of South Molton Museum and Local Archive

We Need You.....!

Are you interested in the history of South Molton and surrounding areas ?

Are you someone who might like to assist in the running of the museum, taking care of its exhibits or maintaining the archive?

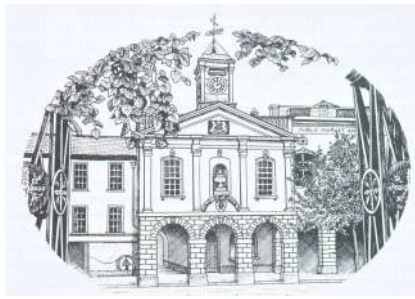

If any of these apply to you, we need to hear from you.....

The Friends of South Molton Museum and Local Archive is a totally voluntary organisation which exists to promote the museum and archive and its collections and records, and provides support and assistance in all aspects of its operation.

Please join us.....
